

Tuckers' Tales Puppet Theatre

Presents

Three Bears!

Four stories, three bears are featured in this collection of bear tales by Tuckers' Tales Puppet Theatre:

Goldilocks and the Three Bears - Ever meet a little girl who can't resist the urge to explore? One of the most popular stories of all time, Goldilocks' adventures with her three unknowing hosts will delight any audience. A story about peaceful conflict resolution.

Why Bear Sleeps All Winter - Based on a Native American legend, Why Bear Sleeps All Winter reveals a long lost bit of bear history presented with the help of the audience.

Bringin' Home the Bacon - Br'er Rabbit teaches 'Sis Bear a thing or two about greediness when she decides to collect up more than she can handle. One of the timeless stories from the American South.

The Two Fellows and the Bear - How reliable are your friends? Aesop's Fable about dependability demonstrates how a friend-in-need can sometimes be a friend missing-in-action!

Total presentation – 45 or 50 Minutes in length (45 Minute version has 3 stories). Suitable for medium to large sized audiences from ages 3 years to adult. Maximum audience size - 900.

Area Required: 15' W x 15'D x 10' H

TUCKERS' TALES PUPPET THEATRE, the Performing division of Puppet Perceptions, Inc., is a Philadelphia area based performing company founded in 1981. Co-directors Marianne and Tom Tucker have performed at puppet, folk, ethnic and street festivals; and at craft fairs, shopping centers, theaters and schools around the country. Audiences from small children to senior citizens have enjoyed the variety of styles skillfully displayed in their interesting programs.

TUCKERS' TALES PUPPET THEATRE
2026 Susquehanna Road
Abington, PA 19001
(215) 885-7073
Fax (215) 885-4195
E-Mail: tucktale@aol.com
Home Page: www.tuckerstaes.com

