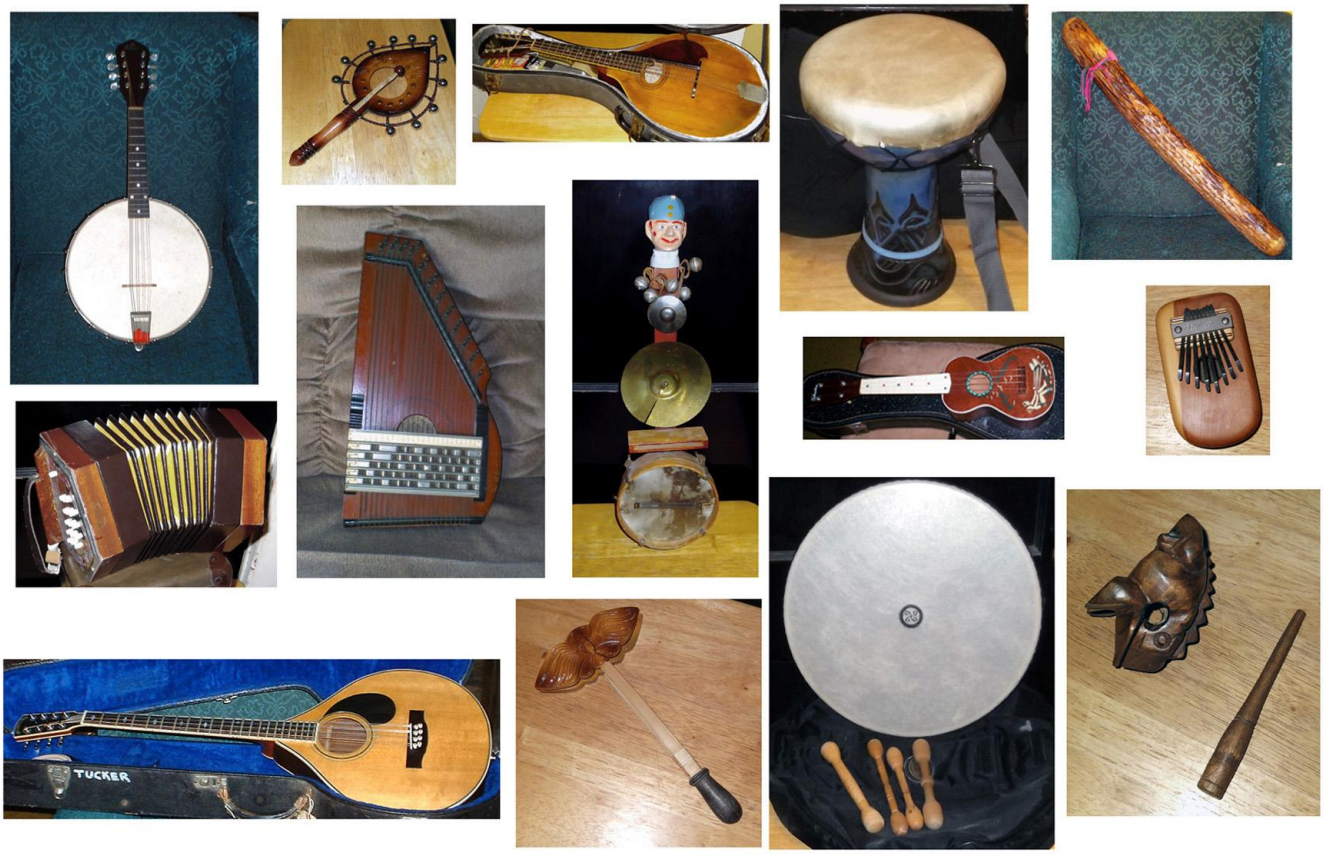
Tuckers' Tales Puppet Theatre

Presents

Unusual Musical Instruments



Do you know what a Stumph Fiddle looks like (or sounds like)? Have you ever seen a Doumbek or a Bouzouki or a Harmony Harp or a Systrum? Now you can experience the musical wonders of the world with demonstrations of a fascinating variety of sights and sounds.

Audiences will get to have fun with a variety of interactive songs and even a couple of puppets.

Length of presentation - 30 Minutes.
Suitable for medium to large sized audiences from age 4 years to adult.
Maximum Audience Size: 350 Area Required: 10' W x 6' D x 8' H.

TUCKERS' TALES PUPPET THEATRE, the Performing division of Puppet Perceptions, Inc., is a Philadelphia area based performing company founded in 1981. Co-directors Marianne and Tom Tucker have performed at puppet, folk, ethnic and street festivals; and at craft fairs, shopping centers, theaters and schools around the country. Audiences from small children to senior citizens have enjoyed the variety of styles skillfully displayed in their interesting programs.

TUCKERS' TALES PUPPET THEATRE
2026 Susquehanna Road
Abington, PA 19001
(215) 885-7073
Fax (215) 885-4195
E-Mail: tucktale@aol.com
Home Page: www.tuckerstales.com